Q10: Until recently, more than 400,000 undocumented immigrants from Venezuela, Cuba, Nicaragua and Haiti had Temporary Protected Status (TPS), meaning the United States government gave them legal status to live here in the U.S. because of the dangerous conditions in their home countries. President Trump terminated these protections for those immigrants, making them eligible to be deported back to Venezuela, Cuba, Nicaragua and Haiti. Do you support or oppose ending TPS protections, and deporting these people?
